

Glory & Grit Podcast

Episode 12 Reflection Guide When God Begins to Rebuild

Take a few moments to reflect on this episode. You may want to write your thoughts, pray about them, or discuss them with someone you trust.

- What feels like it is still in pieces right now?
- Where have you seen even a small sign that God is beginning to rebuild?
- Are you asking God to rebuild something exactly the way it was, or are you open to Him building something deeper?
- What is one piece you can place back in God's hands this week?
- Where do you need to give yourself grace in the rebuilding process?
- What might your next faithful step be in this season?
- What would it look like to trust God with the rebuilding, even if it is happening slowly?
- Lord, what are You inviting me to place back in Your hands?

Closing Scripture

James 1:5 — If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

Continue the Conversation

If this reflection guide helped you, consider sharing this episode with someone who might need encouragement today.

You can find more episodes and reflection guides at gloryandgritpodcast.com.

Thank you for being part of the Glory & Grit community.