Today's Manna: When God Gives You Enough for Now

Can I trust God with today's portion when I cannot see tomorrow's?

TRUTH TO CARRY	PRAYER PROMPT
God may not give me the whole plan, but He can provide what I need for the next faithful step.	Ask Heavenly Father to help you recognize today's provision, receive help without shame, and act with the courage you have now.

REFLECT

- Where am I demanding a complete plan before I will take the next step?
- What help, knowledge, or person has God already placed within my reach?
- How might I recognize today's manna without insisting it look like tomorrow's answer?

GRIT PRACTICE • TODAY'S PORTION

Choose one situation that feels bigger than your preparation. Fill in only today's portion:

What I need today	What I already have	Who can help	My next step

ONE FAITHFUL STEP

Take the step you named. You do not have to solve the entire assignment today.

CLOSING REMINDER

Enough for today is still a gift. God can teach you as you go, even when you began afraid.

Keep walking with Him - one honest, needful step at a time.
